Shelly Behrens

REACH ATHLETIC DEVELOPMENT, L.L.C. - RAD FIELD HOCKEY

Tess Ellis and Shelly Behrens seek a unique experience for field hockey players of all ages by merging their coaching talents. Together, they bring a combined fifty plus years of coaching experience along with their passion for teaching and development of athletes, regardless of experience. Players who work with RAD will improve their technical and tactical game, as well as elevate their overall physical game. From beginner to elite all are welcome and encouraged to challenge themselves. RAD coaches will assist players to develop an understanding of the game along with strong basic skills. Players will benefit from low coaching to player ratios, as well as one-on-one coaching needed to develop and improve their skills. Tess and Shelly not only direct RAD, and its day-to-day operations but they are actively involved in all aspects of the teaching, planning, and all camp sessions! Currently Tess is currently an assistant coach with W&M and Shelly is the Head Coach at Millersville University.
